Sir,

I have the honor to state that para 6 of annexure A to Government Order No.2407-420/M.F.126-17-12 dated 18th February 1919 (re: management of Village Muzrai Institutions) and para 8 of Section VI to Government Order No.3067-80/M.F.421-17-9 dated 3rd April 1919 (re: management of Minor Muzrai Institutions) direct that a brief report on the administration of the Village and Minor Muzrai Institutions should be submitted in duplicate, one to the Deputy Commissioner through the Sub Division Officer and the other to the Muzrai Superintendent in Mysore.

Now that the post of Muzrai Superintendent has been abolished, and the Deputy Commissioners of Districts have complete control over both these classes of institutions and as a consolidated report for the District on the working of the Muzrai Department is got from the Deputy Commissioners, I am of opinion that no useful purpose is now served by duplicates of the brief reports on the administration of the Village and Minor Institutions being submitted to this office. I beg accordingly to recommend that the submission of these duplicate reports to this office may be ordered to be discontinued. The Government Orders referred to above will have to be suitably modified modified if Government are pleased to approve of this proposal.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

K-Meaudy
